

This Telephone Consumer Protection Act should remain in effect. Without its effectiveness the continual calls would disturb times spent with family. I also would like to see that those individuals having unlisted numbers, like myself, have the privacy and peace those unlisted numbers should have been providing.